

Communion

Words & music by Raffi © 2007 Homeland Publishing

love is our mother tongue
ultimate freedom song
on lips of old and young
the breath of life begun

in homo sapiens the conscious human race of genes and nurture spun the flesh & blood embrace

Gaia's communion song in every nation sung in every heart reborn

love is the mother tongue partnering consciousness pulsing the universe the light in all there is circles emerging, networks converging, compassion rising, wisdom ascending — ohhhh

wave after wave, wave after wave of light turn after turn, infinite spin of light divining mystery evolving consciously this co-creation chance the daily spiral dance

circles emerging, networks converging,
